“ There is not much to be said when you lose your second Mom. She adopted me and all of her neighbors children after our parents passed.

She was love, she was laughter, she was joy. Up to date on everything new but she could look at me and tell when something was wrong.

She was an advocate, negotiator and someone who I trusted with every fiber of my being.

We laughed and talked no matter where I was in the world and she loved to complain about Ann Humdy's bad behaving children, with love and humor.

It's hard to lose your Mom once but twice just makes you realize the value of someone's humanity and how they touched your life from childhood through senior citizenship. That was Ms. Mabel.

My deepest condolences to my Sister's Chinita, Denise, Dominique, Mika, Stan and all of Ms. Mabel's relative for this tremendous loss.

She lived an exceptional life, fought a gallant battle like a warrior does and she is now arisen to become an elder with all of our neighbors and parents.

I love you Ms. Mabel. Thanks for being my second Mom. One day we will all be free.

“ Ms. Mabel you will truly be missed. You were such a kind person but truly "no nonsense."

Your light will continue to shine and you and your husband raised two beautiful, caring, kind and compassionate daughters. May you RIP. Love Debra Knight

“ Ms. Mabel was the epitome of sophistication, grace and kindness. It truly was a pleasure getting to know her over the years. We hope the family can find some peace in the memories you all share about her.- With deepest sympathy, The Williams Family
